When their vacation cruise gets attacked by terrorists, Jay, Seymour, Kira, Myin, and Syrl find out that a long forgotten race of powerful aliens have survived extinction.

The bad guys are looking for revenge, possess a doomsday weapon that can destroy the galaxy, and have an endless swarm of warriors.

All Jay has is a shit-talking spaceship, advanced combat boosting armor, and a trio of beautiful warrior women.

The odds aren't in his favor, but that's just how this Marine likes his cards dealt.
