Scarlett needed a fake fiancé.
I needed a real mother for my daughter.
I never thought I'd find love right next door...

It was the last thing I was looking for.
Then I saw her crossing my driveway.
Sassy and curvy in tight denim shorts, I had to claim her.
So I welcomed her to the neighborhood with a bang. All. Night. Long.
But I've got my daughter to think about. I don't do relationships.
Until I find out Scarlett's in trouble.
Her psycho ex is stalking her.
She accidentally told him we're engaged.
But I'll do more than that.
This guy doesn't know I'm a cop...
Or what I'll do to keep her safe.
He'd better stay the f*ck away. He has no idea who he's messing with.
Scarlett's mine now, and I protect what's mine.

My daughter... and my wife.

Love Next Door is a stand-alone novel of 80000 words. As always, lots of love and romance and a very satisfying HEA!

It's also part of a compilation of several of my novels for your reading enjoyment:

Love Next Door (new release)

The Baby Plan

Blind Date with a Billionaire

Double Daddies

Sneak Peak of Marrying His Brother
