Meet 18 year old, Rakia Winters. She's beautiful, smart, and academically a genius. All she wants is to graduate and get as far away from her family as possible. She feels that no one loves her, and if she ever wants to be happy, this is the only way. That is, until she runs into an older guy who makes her star struck. He is everything she dreamed of, however; someone else catches his eye and Rakia, doesn't waste her breath, attempting to meet him. The day before she prepares to leave for school, she comes in contact with the man of her dreams. However, he's not at all what she expected, and she distances herself from him: to avoid any future heartbreak, but can she stay away?

Marco, is the man, every woman wants and yes, he's used to accommodating their needs. His first love broke his heart and he vowed to never fall in love again. Not one woman, the entire time, he's been single, has ever been able to capture his attention, other than sexual. He doesn't believe he'll ever get married, or there's a woman out there, worth his time. He wants to settle down, but the females are not his cup of tea. One day, Marco, runs into a woman he's never seen before, and somehow, she catches his eye. After meeting her, he realizes, she's exactly the person he's been waiting for. However, she wants nothing to do with him. Marco's not used to hearing no, and refuses to leave her alone. Find out if she gives him a chance, or disappears forever.
