Kai, formerly a powerful storm dragon, can't seem to stop causing chaos wherever he goes, despite being collared in human form. Now he's been sent out to an island to take a vacation and not come back without a mate. Which is hard when he's better at rescuing humans than getting along with them. Until he sees curvy Renee, a sexy goddess that makes his dragon take notice. Now all bets are off, and the storm dragon is going to get what the storm dragon wants.

Renee is used to being overlooked, so when the hottest guy at the beach strolls right up to tell her she wants her, she almost falls off her stool. Kai is too tall, too blunt, and too aggressive to be her type, but somehow despite his awkwardness and his obsession with water, she can't resist the innocent kindness and strength of spirit she sees inside. Not to mention his hulking muscles and storm-blue eyes.

From the first kiss, Renee can't help opening herself to passion she'd never imagined, and Kai is determined to win and protect his future mate no matter what. But dark forces are circling, and Kai will have to fight harder than ever before if he wants to keep his new life and new love.
